What is The White Rose Resistance?

My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge. Because you have rejected knowledge, I also will reject you from being My priest.. Hosea 4:6

On Sunday, May 7, approximately 150 people gathered at Valley Life Community Church in Selma to hear Seth Gruber, a pro-life speaker, leader, and host of Unaborted podcast. The son of a pregnancy resource center director, Seth (31) was raised in the pro-life movement and has been speaking publicly on behalf of unborn children since the age of 18 when he saw for the first time what abortion does to a baby. During Seth's presentation, he took us on a history tour of various ideologies of humanism and evolution and the consequences that led to the proliferation of abortion, dehumanizing the unborn, and the birth of Planned Parenthood by its founder, Margaret Sanger. He explained the significance of the White Rose Resistance, a small collective of Christian students led by Hans Scholl and his sister Sophie, who secretly wrote and distributed leaflets all around Germany, criticizing the Nazis and inspiring others to resist them.

On February 18th, 1943, Hans and Sophie walked the halls at the University of Munich, placing hundreds of their leaflets in the open. A janitor caught them in the act and Sophie and her brother were sentenced to death by guillotine. On the eve of her beheading, Sophie spoke some of her final words: "Such a fine, sunny day and I have to go. But what does my death matter, if through us, thousands of people are awakened and stirred to action?" As the blade prepared to fall, Sophie said, "The sun still shines!" This was the inspiration for Seth's non-profit organization, The White Rose Resistance, whose mission is to be a voice for the voiceless and defender of unborn children.

After Seth's excellent presentation, he was joined by John Gerardi, Executive Director of Right to Life of Central California and Jonathan Keller, President of California Family Council, for a panel discussion regarding the abortion climate of California and pending legislation in Sacramento, specifically AB 315 and AB 710, which targets pregnancy centers. (A few weeks following this conference, we learned that both bills (AB 315 and 710) died in legislative committee! Thank you, Lord!)
