From the Heart of the Director

One heart at a time...one life at a time

A Client Testimonial of Hope and Help

He gives them security and they are supported, and His eyes are upon their ways. Job 24:23

Stephanie became a client of our Earn While You Learn parenting program almost five years ago when her youngest son was one month old. We asked Stephanie how the parenting program has benefitted her and she gave us permission to share her response with you.

“Crossroads is a beautiful agency that brings hope to young men and women that have expecting children. They have different parenting tools that can help you along the way. They also give you godly ways to help teach your child right from wrong and different things about Jesus to steer you in the right direction. They also have a little store that helps you get baby supplies for your little one like diapers, wipes, and clothes, and they helped me find more resources about how children can benefit from different food shelters. I have gained a friend and a mentor at the same time. I feel like my relationship with Jesus has become more closer with the Center. The ladies were very friendly with my children and helped me get a highchair for my son when I didn’t think it was possible. I have been going to the program for almost five years and have gained knowledge and different scriptures that has really helped me. For example, Job 24:23: He gives them security and they are supported, and His eyes are upon their ways. Being able to pray about your family with others is just nice to get off your chest without judgment. I enjoy the center very much and I’m glad I heard about it. The people that work there are very caring and helpful. I would recommend it to others.” Stephanie

Thank you and God bless you for your continued prayers and gracious support that enables us to offer hope and help to clients like Stephanie. We couldn’t do this without you.

One heart at a time...one life a time.

Thank You Faith, Fellowship & Food Bible Study

A special thank you to these ladies for gifting our client moms with these beautiful Mother's Day bags. Our clients have been blessed by your gracious generosity, and one first-time mama was so touched that this was her FIRST Mother's Day gift.

Your outpouring of love through these gifts not only encourages our clients, but celebrates the life they are carrying and their God-given role of motherhood.

Thank You South Valley Community Church

Last month, the Women's Ministry at South Valley Community Church, hosted a beautiful baby shower for the Center. Words cannot begin to express our deep gratitude for their gracious generosity of gifts! The spring decorations and food were amazing, along with the sweet fellowship. It was a blessing to be with this wonderful group of ladies who love the Lord and the sanctity of life! Thank you, South Valley, for the invitation to share about the ministry of Crossroads and for your support in this lifesaving and hope-giving ministry.
