Walk for Life ~ Walk for Them Both

Thanking the Lord for October blue skies, wonderful food and sweet fellowship with over 130 friends as we walked for them both: the unborn and their Moms and Dads. In Matthew 22, Jesus was asked what is the greatest commandment. He replied, "You shall love the LORD your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the first and great commandment. And the second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself." Who are our neighbors? Those who come into our lives ~ those who come into the Center.

This year's theme succinctly captures why we are here. The first is to be a voice for the unborn, the most vulnerable, defenseless, and weakest among us. The second is to encourage and support Moms and Dads by walking with them in their pregnancy and parenting journeys through our parenting program. By building relationships and encouraging them in parenthood, they are becoming more confident and equipped to raise their little ones. It is a joy for us to walk alongside them and watch the seeds of what they are learning begin to bear fruit!

We love our neighbors as ourselves by sharing the love of Christ in word and deed by listening, educating, and encouraging those who come through our doors. Thank you all who gave, who walked, who served, and for your ongoing help, support and prayers. By God's grace and your generosity, over $22,000 was raised for the ongoing work of the ministry. To God be all the glory!

Thank you Tacos Pelavacas, The Rolling Cones Ice Cream, Footprints From the Heart, and Calvary Chapel for making this year's Walk very special!

In everything give thanks; for this is God's will for you in Christ Jesus. 1 Thess 5:18

Happy Thanksgiving!

Let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, to which indeed you were called in one body; and be thankful. (Col. 3:15)

For this reason I too, having heard of the faith in the Lord Jesus which exists among you and your love for all the saints, do not cease giving thanks for you, while making mention of you in my prayers. (Eph. 1:15-16)

Thursday Night Market Place

The 2023 season of Thursday Night Market Place is now over. We are thankful to God for every person we met with at our booth. Thank you Norm Perkins for helping us set up/tear down the tent every week and to the volunteers who gave their time to serve at TNMP. Many hands make light work!

We had the blessing of visiting with a former client who stopped to convey her thankfulness for Crossroads. She shared that her daughter is alive today because we were there for her when she came in to meet with us for a pregnancy test. Thank you, Lord!

Therefore, my beloved brethren, be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing that your toil is not in vain in the Lord. (1 Cor. 15:58)
