

From the Heart of the Director

One heart at a time...one life at a time

Thursday Night Market Place

“Sandy” (not her real name) visited our table at Thursday Night Market Place with a couple of friends who were inquiring about our services. During our conversation, Sandy asked about our former director, Kathy Mundy. She shared with us that when she was a young teen about twelve years ago, she met with Kathy when she discovered she was pregnant and had intentions to abort. Sandy expressed how grateful she was for the time Kathy took with her and how she eased her fears. Not only did Sandy keep her baby, but also returned to the Lord as a result of Kathy’s encouragement. Sandy quickly pulled out her cell phone to show us a picture of her handsome eleven-year-old son who is here because Crossroads was here for her.

We were blessed that Sandy shared her beautiful story of God’s saving grace and redemption with us. It’s an incredible reminder of how God works through His faithful servants to save precious lives. A life was saved from abortion and a redeemed life returned to Him.

This is why Crossroads exists. Thank you for your continued and faithful support that enables us to keep our doors open for women like Sandy. To God be all the glory!

One heart at a time...one life at a time.

Spin The Wheel

Spin the Wheel is a popular game where people of all ages are asked various questions about babies, relationships, life and abortion. A teen and her younger brother came up for their turn at the wheel. The question for the teen was: “What does it mean to respect someone?” Before she could answer, her brother interjected, “I know! It means to treat others as you would want to be treated.” We replied, “That’s right! Did you know that’s in the Bible?” He said, “It is?” “It is! Jesus said it and we know it as the Golden Rule. Great answer!” :-)

Carnegie Museum Car Show

It was a pleasant June day to participate as a vendor at the 3rd annual Carnegie Museum Car Show in Hanford’s Civic Park. With over 190 cars on display from five counties, we had the pleasure of meeting visitors and sharing about the ministry.

Hanford High ~ 5k Run

We were thrilled to be invited to Hanford High School’s inaugural 5k Run for mental health awareness.

Both students and parents visited our table and learned about the free services we offer to the community.
