New Day ~ New Mercies ~ New Life

On January 22, 2023, Americans all over our nation celebrated Sanctity of Human Life Sunday for the first time since the reversal of Roe v Wade, giving this national proclamation even more significance. Also, for the first time since 1973, states now have the power to enact their own laws regarding abortion. In many states, laws have been passed to restrict abortion; while in other states, like California, laws have been passed to increase abortion rights and access.

What does this mean for our ministry? We are going to be needed more than ever.

Consider Michelle (not her real name). Michelle recently visited the center and was nervous about the possibility of being pregnant. Struggling to see life beyond her fears of being a single mom, Michelle was convinced abortion was the best and only option.

Michelle believed in God but felt He had forgotten her. In her mind, she was facing insurmountable obstacles all alone. She was overwhelmed and felt rejected and abandoned by God. As we empathized with her, we not only offered tangible help but most importantly had the opportunity to share real hope through the Gospel of Christ. We talked about the love of God and what He accomplished on the cross and the resurrection—that through faith in Christ, we can be born again and forgiven of our sins. We encouraged her to consider that God had not abandoned her but rather, He was calling her to believe and trust in Christ as her Savior and Lord. This precious young woman heard and believed the Gospel of Jesus Christ and trusted Him as her Savior!

By the end of our meeting, abortion was no longer an option. Two lives had been saved!

Michelle began the new year with new life! In one day, she experienced the new birth with a new life being formed in her womb. She left the center with a new Study Bible, a gift bag and a joy-filled countenance of new faith in Jesus Christ.

To God be all the glory! This is why we are here.

Happy New Year!
